constitutional convention of Virginia, sub-as to whether the work of the convention should be referred to the people for final approval or rejection, therefore it is the sense of the republican committees for Alexandria city and Alexandria county, in Alexandria city and Alexandria county, in joint meeting assembled, that no republican should participate in the democratic primary of March 28, 1901."

At a recent meeting of the democratic executive committee of Fairfax county it was decided to hold district meetings April 10, for the reministic of condidates for 10 for the nomination of candidates for district offices and to nominate delegates to a county convention to select a candidate for the state constitutional convention. Mr. R. Walton Moore is the only candidate announced up to the present.
